BITCH JUDGE - MR PASCAL TRIFILIEFF

First, please excuse my bad English!
I live in France, I work for Royal Canin and I spend a lot of time for the French Boxer Club too.
I have bred my first Boxer litter more than 30 years ago now (Bellemanie kennel), despite that, I am not that old!!!
Since that time, I never stop breeding, looking for blood-lines, going to shows all over the world to understand the Boxer.
I like him powerful but very elegant with that so important Boxer expression on his face.
The body should be strong with big bones and perfect angulations to have a beautiful movement.
I had some success in breeding with Ch Cyrius de Bellemanie (Atibox Young Champion and Best in Show), G'M de Bellemanie (Multi European Champion), Ch Gucci de Bellemanie, Ch Birdie de Bellemanie.
I still breed today but my wife does most of the work (thank you Sophie !) because I devote myself more in judging.
Hope to have a great time with you and hope you will be convinced by my judgements.

DOG JUDGE

MRS DENISE PYE

I have been actively involved in showing and breeding Boxers since 1981. The Burnden affix was registered in 1984 when we first bred a dog that was deemed worthy of inclusion in the studbook. We have never owned many dogs, I currently have two, having always strived to produce quality rather than quantity. All our dogs are first and foremost family pets. We enjoy our dogs whether in the show ring or any other discipline. It is never too late to teach an old dog new tricks. We have bred several U.K. champions and have also owned and showed Ch Willow Reach for the Stars at Burnden which was bred by Amanda Payne. We are also proud of the achievements of our breeding overseas.
I am thrilled to be asked to judge the Midland Boxer Club. Appointments are always eagerly accepted, then there is the feeling of trepidation, as the show grows nearer.
I thoroughly enjoy judging and have several championship shows under my belt together with all breeds best in shows. Serving on a committee myself I am very aware of the sheer hard work involved.

I hope everyone enjoys a happy and successful show and you will take the best dog home.
